From: Robert D. Clinard, Benton County Judge
Date: April 4, 2013
Subject: County Hall Meeting to be held in Pea Ridge

Benton County will be holding a County Hall Meeting on April 15, 2013, 6:00 P.M. at the Pea Ridge Community Center located at 293 S. Curtis in the Emergency Services Building.

The purpose of this meeting is to bring county government to the citizens of Benton County.

This meeting will include surrounding areas such as Bella Vista and Garfield. The following Justices of the Peace will attend the meeting: Pat Adams of Pea Ridge, Mike McKenzie of Garfield and Joel Jones of Bella Vista. Other county elected officials who will be there are: Bob Clinard, County Judge, Kelley Craddock, Sheriff, Tena Obrien, County Clerk, Gloria Peterson, Collector, and Bear Chaney, Assessor.

They will be available to answer questions regarding law enforcement, ambulance services, property assessments, taxes, county road issues, emergency services, county planning, and more.

Assessment and tax statements have recently been mailed out. This is a great opportunity to ask questions about how the county determines the values that are placed on your property.

We hope the public will come out and meet the elected officials and bring their questions and concerns.

We appreciate Mayor Crabtree for allowing us to use the Community Services Building.
